Remarks

Mid-Century Modern architecture meets comfortable, open-concept living in this thoughtfully updated home. With distinctive architectural lines and expansive windows, the home offers abundant natural light and 360-degree views that bring the outdoors in. A circular driveway welcomes you to an impressive entrance, where a substantial wood front door framed by custom stained glass opens into a spacious foyer with a dedicated coat room and a half-bath featuring its original foil wallpaper. A two-sided fireplace connects the foyer to the Great Room with 16 foot vaulted ceilings and a charming spiral staircase. Throughout the home, walnut woodwork, custom built-ins, and tile selections that preserve the home's Mid-Century character while incorporating modern updates. A sunken bar area, open to both the Great Room and kitchen, creates an inviting space for entertaining while keeping guests connected throughout the main living areas. The spacious primary suite offers privacy and direct access to the courtyard. Its en-suite bathroom features walnut vanities, travertine countertops, a sunken bathtub, an updated tiled shower, two walk-in closets with beautiful and functional built-in cabinetry throughout. Recent improvements include a new shingled roof (2025), newer forced-air
